

The managers of the "Yale Commons" eating club, founded last year, made a report showing that about five hundred students were provided for at the average cost of 3.96 per week.

The Amherst plan of government, through the co-operation of a college senate chosen from the students, worked so well last year that "in no instance has disciplinary action been necessary."

Dartmouth has obtained the use of the New Hampshire building at the World's Fair for a specified day, when a college reunion will be held.

During the recent dedicatory exercises, the several fraternity houses were crowded with guests from far and near, and the boys did everything in their power to make the visit to the college a pleasant one, and they hope to have several such opportunities of entertaining the friends of the college ere they leave their Alma Mater.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Society entanglement—how delightfully dangerous! One might say she has wound herself about him. If he's not "on the trail" he's certainly in it. Would she do that with a shabby suit? Not a bit! 'Twas the charm of the faultlessly attired figure that drew her. An artist's handiwork—from Wauamaker & Brown's.
