

been proposed is no exception. Some one should and must take the lead to give us the results needed. The labor in many cases must be of love for your college, but the benefits of the training which will be given you will repay all efforts. Let the start be made and at once!

Pennsylvania State College having struggled through much prejudice from which it is now freeing itself is beginning to find a spirit of jealousy abroad ready to create wrong conceptions. The newspaper properly used is the best weapon by which to overcome both in that it reaches the public.

AN ALUMNUS.

IN MEMORIAM.

JAMES F. PATRICK.

Hall of Pa. Σ Alpha Zeta, March 26, 1893.

WHEREAS, a Loving Father, who orders all things for the best and does not willingly lay the hand of affliction upon us, has removed from our midst our beloved and respected brother in Σ. A. E. James F. Patrick, therefore, Be it Resolved, that in the passing away of Brother Patrick, Pa. Alpha Zeta has lost one of her best, noblest, and truest members.

Resolved, that we send out our hearts full of sympathy to the sorrowing parents and family, who have lost a good, noble, christian son and brother.

Resolved, that these resolutions be inscribed upon the minutes of Pa. Alpha Zeta, that a copy be sent to the bereaved family of the deceased, and that they be published in the FREE LANCE and the Σ. A. E. Record.

Committee. { W. A. SILLIMAN.
H. A. KUHN.
J. M. MCKIBBEN.

IN MEMORY OF A CLASS-MATE.

At a meeting of the Junior class held to-day the following resolutions were adopted;

We the members of the class of '94, of the Pennsylvania State College, realizing the loss which we have sustained in the death of our friend and class-mate, James F. Patrick, do hereby resolve that, in the death of our friend, we have lost a true companion, much endeared to us by his genial and generous disposition; and the class an ardent and zealous supporter.

Resolved, that in view of the loss which we have sustained, we, as a class, do tender our sincerest sympathy to the family and relatives of our departed class-mate.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, to the papers at his late home and in Bellefonte; and in the College paper.

H. P. DOWLER. }
A. F. DAMON. } Class Committee.
J. M. BREWER. }

Mar. 16, 1893. State College, Pa.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

At a special meeting of the State College Society of Christian Endeavor, March 22, 1893, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, it has pleased God in his love and wisdom to visit his people with death by taking from among us one who has sincerely labored in the cause of Christ and the Church, one who by his walk and conversation did show forth those christian graces that follow prayer and the desire to be christ-like. one who in the strength of his youth had exhibited traits of integrity, charity and wisdom in his obedience to duty, therefore be it

Resolved, that the Christian Endeavor Society of State College manifest its grief in the death of James Patrick, which occurred March 16, 1893, who was an associate member of the Society; because in his death we have lost a valuable friend, and an earnest co-laborer in God's vineyard, and

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of the Society, one be presented to the College FREE LANCE for publica-