

—An unusually large number of students left College during the Thanksgiving vacation to visit home and friends; some went to see the big foot ball games.

—The University Hotel will soon be completed. Mr. Wescot, the lessee, expects to be ready for business by February, '94. Steam heat and electric light are to be used throughout.

—Owing to the financial condition of the FREE LANCE, the staff decided not to send a delegate to the meeting of the Central Inter-collegiate Press Association held at Lancaster, Saturday, December 9.

—Much interest is taken by the student body in the newspaper battle going on between this College and Bucknell University over the treatment our team received in Lewisburg after the Bucknell foot ball game.

—The organization of a college glee club has been placed in Dr. Walker's hands and twenty-eight candidates have already made application. At a recent meeting President Atherton gave the enterprise his hearty endorsement.

—The Scientific Association held its first regular meeting in the reading room of the Engineering building, Tuesday evening, December 12. The following was the programme.

Inaugural Address,.....	PRES. T. W. KINKAID.
Some points on the development of the Weston instruments,.....	Prof. M. M. GARVER.
Hindoo Mathematics,.....	Prof. W. C. THAYER.
What is quartered oak?.....	General discussion.
Prevention of dry rot,.....	" "
Colorific value of Organic substances,.....	" "

—"The State College Scientific Association" is the name of a new society formed by the faculty and instructors. Its object is to promote discussion and research on the current scientific subjects. The following officers have been chosen: President, Professor T. W. Kinkaid; first vice-president, Professor William A. Buckhout; second vice-president, Louis E. Reber; third vice-president, Professor M. C. Ihlseng; secretary and treasurer, Dr. H. P. Armsby.

—The Adelphi club elected the following members at a recent meeting: Professors F. P. Emery, F. E. Foss, H. H. Stoek, and J. M. Wolf; Messrs. G. K. Spence, D. Barton, B. B. Horton and H. G. Fleck, all of '95. The club expects to give its second cotillion in Bellefonte on the 26th of January.

—The annual Thanksgiving Assembly was given by the senior class, Friday evening, December 1st. The patronesses were; Mrs. Daniel H. Hastings, Mrs. James A. Beaver, Mrs. Ed. Colt, Mrs. J. M. Smith, Mrs. A. P. McDonald, Mrs. Charles N. Roberts, Mrs. James A. Johnson, Mrs. J. A. Bucher, Mrs. C. G. Furst, Mrs. William A. Simpson, Mrs. Frank Delo, Mrs. Thomas W. Kinkaid, Mrs. George W. Atherton, Miss Harriet McElwain, Mrs. Clyde E. Stitzer.

—The Mines and Mining display of Pennsylvania at the World's Fair is being arranged in the new Mechanical building. This exhibit was one of the most complete of its kind at the Fair, containing collections of Pennsylvania minerals, models of mining machinery, and mining tools of all kinds. It is valued at $30,000. The state displays in education, agriculture, and forestry have also been donated to the College and are now being placed in the departments to which they belong. It took five cars to transport the whole from Chicago.

—The following program was rendered by the Lotus Glee Club Friday, November 24:

1. "The Brownies".....Wentzle.
Lotus Glee Club.
2. "The Quaker's Kiss".....Eugene Field.
Miss Marshall.
3. "The Maiden's Wish".....Chopin.
Lotus Glee Club.
4. "Our Friendships".....J. M. Barrie.
Miss Marshall.
5. Duet.....Selected.
Mr. Raymond and Mr. Lewis.
7. "Glory".....Roedel.
Lotus Glee Club.
8. "Married to the Flowers".....S. M. H. Beyers.
Miss Marshall.
9. "Sweet Peggy".....Selected.
Mr. Davis.