

—Editor-in-chief Burkett reports that the '95 La Vie has gone to press. From all indications the illustration will be up to the standard of last year's volume, while it is expected that in literary merit it will surpass any previous edition. It will be out about the middle of May.

—The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Inter-Collegiate Oratorical Union was held at Allentown, Saturday, February 24th. The two literary societies decided not to send a delegate, and State was therefore not represented. Mr. W. A. Silliman, '94, was re-elected a member of the executive committee.

—The Sphinx Chess Club has been reorganized under favorable auspices. The officers are: H. E. Dunkle '93, president; R. B. Greer, '95, secretary and treasurer. The members are: M. E. McDonald, '96, Prof. Willard, W. H. Rebhun, '94, G. E. Snyder '95, W. K. Gibboney '95, J. W. Miller '97, R. B. Greer '95 and H. E. Dunkle '93.

—Owing to the unfortunate demise of the "400" the base ball committee took in hard that most delightful event "the 400" Bal Masque. The perfect success of the undertaking was marred by the non-arrival of a number of costumes that had been ordered. A very enjoyable evening was spent Friday, March 2nd. Music by college orchestra.

—At an athletic meeting held Monday evening, March 19, Mr. J. B. White '94, was regularly elected State's member of the executive committee of the Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association of Pennsylvania. The same evening the medals, won at the winter athletic meeting in the armory, were presented by Prof. Waters with an appropriate speech.

A communication from Prof. Sparks was read, offering a silver cup to be given to the member of the base ball team having the highest batting average during the regular schedule of games his Spring. The offer was accepted with a rousing vote of thanks.

—The base ball schedule, which by an oversight was omitted in last month's LANCE, has been changed slightly and now stands as follows. The unusual number of games on the home grounds is exceedingly gratifying.

April 14, Harrisburg League, at State College.

April 21, Altoona League, at State College.

April 25, University of Virginia, at Charlottesville Va.

April 26, Washington & Lee at Lexington, Va.

April 27, A. M., Virginia Military Institute, at Lexington, Va.

April 27, P. M., Staunton Athletic Association, at Staunton, Va.

April 28, Richmond College, at Richmond, Va.
May 5, open.

May 12, Dickinson, at State College.

May 18, Gettysburg, at Gettysburg.

May 19, Dickinson, at Carlisle.

May 23, Washington and Jefferson, at State College.

May 30, A. M. and P. M., Demorest, at Williamsport.

May 31, Cuban Giants, at State College.

June 2, Gettysburg, at State College.

June 12, Alumni, at State College.

June 13, Demorest at State College.

—The annual convention of the Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association of Pennsylvania, was held Saturday March 3rd, in the parlors of the Bingham House, Philadelphia. Owing to a mistake in the time at which the meeting should have been called, only four colleges had representatives present:—Swarthmore, Gettysburg, Lehigh and State. The delegates elected officers as follows: President, Swarthmore; Vice President, Lafayette; Secretary, Lehigh; and Treasurer, Gettysburg. It is the custom to elect the college to the position and then let the college choose the man. The next business was to choose a place of meeting. Swarthmore proposed and very ably defended Philadelphia, while State offered her own grounds. A vote was taken which was a tie. It was decided that the secretary