

The following-named universities publish daily papers: Cornell, Brown, Harvard, Leland Stanford, Princeton, and the Universities of Michigan, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania.

Lehigh's eleven is the strongest that has ever played under the brown and white colors.—Ex. But nevertheless State College is the Rubicon they dare not cross.

Instead of the usual rush between the Sophs and Freshmen at Cornell, their physical supremacy will be decided by a series of athletic contests arranged by the Students' Committee on Discipline. That is an excellent plan. It has been used here and all rushes except that over the Freshmen flag have been abolished. It has work to the satisfaction of a concerned.

The subjects presented to the Agora by the College Debating union are:

Resolved, That the government should insure steady employment to every able-bodied citizen; and

Resolved, The owing to the corruption prevailing in present political methods the Initiative and Referendum modeled after the Swiss plan are necessary to a pure expression of the people's will.

One of the questions will probably be debated at the next meeting.

EXCHANGES.

The owl took his hat and gloves one night,
His sweetheart for to see,
When his daddy asked him where he went:
"On a definite object I'm intent,
To wit, to woo," said he;
"To wit, to wit, to woo!"

But he scarce had stepped outside the door
When he could not fail to see
That the sky with clouds was all o'ercast,
"To wet, to woo," said he;
"To wet, to wet, to woo." —Harvard Lampoon.

If Mary's snowy little lamb
Back to the earth would hie,
The jokes he'd see about himself
Would make him glad to die. —Ex.

"Shall I brain him?" cried the hazer,
And the victim's courage fled,
"You can't: it is a Freshmen,
Just hit it on the head."

A pretty young amateur housekeeper she,
And she said to the butcher as bold as could be:
"Two canvas back ducks and a quart of green peas,
And you'll take off the canvas, good, sir if you please." —Ex.

Out of 128 students who took the examination for entrance into Indiana University this year, only twenty-two passed. It will be necessary for the preparatory schools of Indiana to increase facilities in order to meet the entrance requirements of the State University.—Ex. They must be harder to please than we are here.

We paused to watch the quiver
Of faint moonbeams on the river,
By the gate.

We had heard something calling
And a heavy dew is falling,
Yet we wait.

It is no doubt very silly
To stay out in all this chilly
Evening mist.

Still I linger hesitating
For her lips are plainly waiting
To be kissed.

So I stooped to take possession
Of the coveted concession
On the spot.

But she draws back with discreetness,
Saying with tormenting sweetness,
"I guess not."

Her whole manner is provoking;
"Oh, well, I was only joking,"

I reply,

She looks penitently pretty,
As she answers: "What a pity!
So was I." —Harvard Lampoon.

They used to sing some time ago
A rather plaintive song,
"Man wants but little here below,
Nor wants that little long."
But nowadays the song is set
With music to the rhyme;
"Man wants as much as he can get
And wants it all the time. —Record.
