

'93. D. W. Gross, employed by the Clearfield, Conemaugh and Western railroad visited the College during December.

'91. N. H. Suloff is on the Civil Engineer Corps of the Altoona and Philipsburg connecting railroad, and is at present stationed at Houtzdale.

'91. C. M. Green visited the College recently and was the guest of Professor Osmond. Mr. Green is en route to Cleveland, Ohio, to accept a position in the testing-laboratory of the Brush Electric company.

'91. J. W. Fields, until recently employed at the experimental station, has accepted a position, with Rob't. L. Mervin & Co., New York. This company is general agent for H. and E. Albert, F. R. H. S., London, England, manufacturers of fine fertilizers.

'90. Professor R. L. Watts, of the University of Tennessee and Horticulturist of the Tennessee Experiment Station, was lately married to Miss Hattie Searle of that State. They left to make an extended trip to Florida immediately after the ceremony.

Ex-'90. W. E. Stevenson of the Westinghouse General Electric company, Pittsburg, Pa., is stationed at the present time in Chicago, Ill. He will return to Pittsburg sometime during March.

'86. H. J. Patterson, chief chemist of the Experiment Station at the Maryland Agricultural College, and his sister, Mrs. A. L. Miller, '85 spent two weeks with their parents in State College.

Miss H. A. McElwain, professor in history, who was compelled to drop her work during the latter part of last term on account of ill health, has resumed her duties this session.

COLLEGE ORBIT.

Pennsylvania is preparing a university song book.

Vassar has challenged Bryn Mawr to a joint debate.

Freshmen debating clubs have been formed at Harvard and Yale.

On Thanksgiving 130 football matches were held in the United States.

Seventy new members have been added to the faculty of Brown University.

The fixed annual income of the University of California is now $326,000.

Eleven of Harvard's prominent athletes were among those who received honors at commencement.

There's lots of religion in a beef steak if you give it to the right man at the right time.—Jerry McAuley.

Yale has graduated 15,346 students since its foundation in 1701, of which number 7,720 are now living.

The University of Michigan graduated 730 students last year, the largest class ever graduated from any college.—Ex.

The University of Pennsylvania has opened a two-hour course in newspaper practice for Freshmen and Sophomores.—Ex.

The University of California sends a team of track and field men to compete in the inter-collegiate games next spring.—Ex.

A press club has been organized at Harvard. It is composed of all the students connected in any way with college or outside papers.

A prize of $50, to be awarded annually for three years, has been offered at the Johns Hopkins University for excellence in oratory.

Prizes representing the income of $6,000 have been offered to those who excel in the oratorical exercises of the Senior class at Princeton.

Cornell will train two crews this year one light eight to row in the Henly regatta in England, and a heavy one to meet Pennsylvania.

Cornell has more fellowships than any other university except Columbia. Two of these are worth $600 each, and the other twenty $500 each.