The Constitution of the Athletic Association of The Pennsylvania State College, with Proposed Revisions.

Adopted, January 26th, 1892. Revised, January 6th, 1894. Second revision proposed, January 14th, 1895. Second revision adopted, February 12th, 1895.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1.—This Association shall be known as "the Athletic Association of The Pennsylvania State College, and shall be divided into three departments: Football, Baseball and General Athletics.

SECTION 2.—The General Athletic Department shall include all sports excepting those of football and baseball.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1.—This Association shall consist of active and associate members.

SECTION 2.—Any student, member of the Faculty, Instructor, or Alumnus of this Institution may become an active member at any time, upon payment of the regular dues to the Treasurer and recording his name with the Secretary. Whenever an active member shall cease to pay dues and assessments as prescribed he shall forfeit his rights as such.

SECTION 3.—Associate members shall consist of all former members of this Association, all Alumni, members of the Faculty and Instructors.

SECTION 4.—Both associate and active members may attend meetings and have equal rights to the floor, but voting and office holding shall be confined to active members.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1.—The officers of this Association shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and a Board of Auditors consisting of three persons.

SECTION 2.—One year shall constitute a term of office.

SECTION 3.—The election of these officers shall be held during the last week in April.

ARTICLE IV.

SECTION 1.—It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings, to expound and enforce a due observance of the Constitution and By-laws, to decide upon all questions of order, to call meetings, to appoint officers and committees, not otherwise provided for, to fill temporary vacancies, and to issue orders on the Treasury for bills not belonging to either of the three Departments.

SECTION 2.—In the absence of the President the Vice-President shall perform all duties of that office.

SECTION 3.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep in books provided for the purpose full and complete minutes of the proceedings of the Association, a complete and correct list of the various sports of the Association, and an accurate list of all active members. He shall, at the
