

SECTION 3.—The word year, as used in this article, shall mean College year.

SECTION 4.—No reduction in dues shall be made for fractional parts of a year.

ARTICLE III.

Order of business shall be :

1. Call to order.
2. Roll call of active members.
3. Reading and approval of minutes of the previous meeting.
4. Election.
5. Inaugurations.
6. Reports of Committees and Officers.
7. Regular business.
8. Adjournment.

ARTICLE IV.

Any part of the By-laws, except Section 3, Article 1; and Article II may be set aside for a meeting by a two thirds vote of the active members present.

Committee. { C. W. Burkett '95.
E. H. Harris '95.
J. G. Dunsmore.

January 14th, 1895.

PERSONALS.

NOTE. In order to facilitate the gathering and publishing of personals, it is requested that any reader having any news whatever concerning an alumnus or friend of this institution, will send the same to the personal editor of the LANCE.

Ex-'97. J. J. Connelly now holds a position as mailing clerk at the Towanda post office.

Ex-'96. C. M. Eby is at his home at Newport, Pa. In the fall he will attend the University of Pennsylvania to take the course in dentistry.

Ex '95. Hugh Taylor, of Bellefonte, visited College during the latter part of January.

Ex-'95. A. G. Grunwell is a senior medical student at the Columbia University, Washington, D. C.

'94. J. M. Brewer has gone to Rochester, N. Y., on a visit to his brother, who is employed on the New York Central.

'94. John White, of the White-Crosby Electric Railroad Building Company, Baltimore. Md., visited College during the latter part of January.

'94. H. P. Dowler, who is engineer and assistant superintendent of the J. L. Mitchell & Co. mining firm at Tyrone, is convalescing from a severe attack of malarial fever.

'94. W. B. Waite, general agent for the Osborn harvesting machine company, is teaching music during the winter months at his home, Water Street, Huntingdon county, Pa.

'94. A. G. Guyer, formerly with the Westinghouse Electric Co., has gone to Rochester, N. Y., to accept a position on the New York Central railroad. He will be employed on the electric switch and signal system which is in charge of a brother of J. M. Brewer.

'93. J. G. Walsh is now at West Chester, Pa.

'93. C. R. Fay is chemist for the Juniata Lime Company, at Carlin, Pa.

'92. C. E. Aull, formerly with Eduburn and Cooper, civil and mining engineers, of Pittsburg, Pa., is now treasurer of the Iron City Planing Mill and Lumber Co., Pittsburg, Pa.

Ex '91. H. D. Meek, until lately, pharmacist at J. N. Krumrine's, has gone to Washington, D. C., to take charge of a drug store.

'90. H. W. Mitchell, attorney at law in Pittsburg, visited the College on the 28th of last month.

J. W. C. Carl, a former student at this institution is now located at Susquehanna, Pa.

'87. W. F. White, formerly superintendent of the power and mining department of the General Electric Company, at Chicago, Ill., has gone to Omaha, Nebraska. On January 1st, he accepted the position of vice-president and general manager of the New Omaha Thompson-Houston Electric Light Co. This company was incorporated in 1885 and has a capital of $1,100,000.

COLLEGE ORBIT.

A student at the University of Michigan has gone insane from over-study. Freshmen take warning.

The abolition of foot-ball at North-western University is being considered by a committee of the University trustees.