

spent a part of their wedding tour here as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Atherton.

The obituary in our last issue referred to the removal of the Sophomore engineers from chemistry practicum before the completion of their course.

Schueler, '97, resigned the editor-in-chiefship as indicated of the 97 La Vie and Teas was elected in his stead. J. A. Dunsmore resigned the business managership and Baumgardner was elected to that office while Allen was elected to the board to fill the place left vacant by Baumgardner. Dom was elected an additional artist.

The electrical and civil engineering departments have received a new lot of substantial drawing tables.

The battalion will appear in duck trousers in the commencement exhibition drill.

The Young Men's Christian Association will publish a second volume of handbooks.

The civil engineering department recently received a valuable addition in the way of a complete set of street railway rails, the gift of the Johnson Company, of Johnstown, Pa.

By what seems to have become an established custom, State was defeated by the Cuban Giants to the tune of 13 to 4 on Wednesday, May 8. Timely hitting and a few costly errors enabled the Giants to take the lead in the seventh inning.

The score :

STATE COLLEGE.					CUBAN GIANTS.
	R.	H.	O.	A.	E.		R.	H.	O.	A.	E.
Greenland, rf	0	0	2	0	1	Patterson, lf	1	1	2	0	1
Rice, ss	1	0	4	1	0	Jackson, rf	4	2	0	0	0
Atherton, 2b	1	1	5	2	0	Williams, c	3	1	8	2	1
Brown, lf	1	1	3	0	1	Grant, 2b	1	1	5	1	0
Hayes, c	0	1	1	2	3	Jackson, 3b	1	2	2	2	0
Walker, 3b	1	1	2	2	0	Jackson, cf	1	2	1	0	0
Thomas, 1b	0	2	8	0	0	Nelson, 1b	0	1	6	0	0
Isenberg, cf	0	1	0	0	1	Seldon, p	0	1	2	2	0
Nesbit, p	0	0	2	1	0	Terrell, ss	2	1	1	4	1
Totals	4	7	27	8	6	Totals	13	12	27	11	3
Cuban Giants						3	0	0	0	0	2	3	4	1-13
State College						4	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0-4

Earned runs—State College, 3; Cuban Giants, 4. Home runs—Atherton, Walker. Three-base hit—A. Jackson. Two-base hit—Grant. Wild pitch—Nesbit. Passed balls—Hayes, 2. Base on balls—State College, 3; Cuban Giants, 6. Struck out—By Nesbit, 3; by Seldon, 7. Time—2 hours, 10 minutes. Umpire—Haley.

State avenged herself for her defeat by Dickinson earlier in the