

season by defeating her on Friday, May 3, by a score of 7 to 4. Nesbit kept the Carlisle boys' hits well scattered, and no runs were made until the seventh inning. A neatly executed double play from Hayes to Nesbit was the feature of the game.

The score:

STATE COLLEGE.					DICKINSON.
	R.	H.	O.	A. E.		R.	H.	O.	A. E.
Stuart, 2b	1	0	2	2	0	Shearer, cf	1	1	1	0	1
Rice, ss	1	0	2	1	1	McNeal, ss	0	1	1	3	3
Greenland, rf	2	1	1	0	0	West, cf	0	0	0	0	0
Atherton, 1b	0	2	12	0	0	Gilroy, 2b	0	1	3	3	1
Walker, 3b	1	0	1	5	0	Goodall, 1b	0	0	10	0	0
Hayes, c	2	1	7	1	1	Davis, rf	1	0	0	0	0
Thomas, cf	0	1	2	0	0	Williams, p	1	1	0	5	0
Painter, lf	0	0	0	0	3	Campbell, 3b	1	1	4	3	2
Nesbit, p	0	0	0	5	1	Bowman, c	0	0	8	1	0
Totals	7	5	27	14	6	Totals	4	5	27	15	7
State College						2	0	1	0	0	1
Dickinson						0	0	0	0	0	1

Earned runs—State College, 2. Two-base hits—Atherton, Gilroy, Williams, Shearer. Three-base hits—Atherton. Double plays—Hayes to Nesbit. Struck out—By Nesbit, 3; by Williams, 8. Base on balls—Off Nesbit, 2; off Williams, 5. Stolen bases—Greenland, West, 2; Gilroy, Shearer, Nesbit. Sacrifice hits—Atherton, Painter, McNeal. Passed ball—Bowman, 1. Wild pitch—Williams, 3. Time of game—2 hours, 5 minutes. Umpire—Dr. Fernald.

COLLEGE ORBIT.

Of the twenty-three men who received honors at Harvard this year eleven are prominent athletes.

The first Ph. D. degree, given by the University of Chicago, was conferred on a Japanese.

One hour a week of debating is required of each Amherst senior.

The new building of the University of the City of New York will be ten stories high and will cost $700,000.

Since its foundation, the West Point Military Academy has graduated 3,562 officers.

Oxford University claims twenty-one colleges and five halls, with a student list of 12,000.

At a mass meeting of Princeton under-graduates, recently, it was voted that the Freshmen should hereafter have no voice in the