Mr. Harry H. Mallory, '99, was awarded THE FREE LANCE prize for November.

Mr. Armstrong, of Dickinson, gave an entertainment in the College chapel on the evening of November 8th for the benefit of general athletics.

A college play will be given in the armory during the winter term. All who desire to take part in this will mail their names to H. A. Kuhn. The play will be given under the auspices of THE FREE LANCE.

The geology class, under Prof. Ihlseng, has been taking excursions every Saturday to points of geological interest in this vicinity. The places visited this term are Penn's Cave, Waddles, Pine Grove and Scotia.

On Sunday evening, November 3d, Rev. Fred. J. Stanley, who has spent a number of years as professor in one of the universities in Japan, preached in the College chapel, his subject being "God's Footsteps in the Occident and Orient." The talk was a most interesting and instructive one and gave the hearers some idea of the almost incredible progress of the Japanese in recent years.

We are all glad to see Dr. Atherton out again after his illness of several weeks.
