CHEM'S, 0—MECH'S, 0.

The chemists played the winner of the Mech.-Elec. contest in a very well matched game on Friday, November 22nd. The crowd manifested great interest throughout the game. In the first half the ball was in the Mech's territory all the time. In the second half the play was throughout in the Chem's. At one time the ball was dangerously near their goal line. Here the fierce rushes of Hill saved the day for the Chemists. When time was called the Chemists had the ball. Darragh played a good game for the Mech's. The line-up was as follows:

MECH'S.	POSITION.	CHEM'S,
Conrad	left tackle	Norris

NINETY-EIGHT, 36—NINETY-NINE, 0.

The annual football contest between the Sophomore and Freshmen classes to decide whether the Freshmen should carry canes, was played Saturday, December 7th. It was a beautiful day, considering the season, and the grounds were in very good condition.

The Freshmen team contained some very good material but lacked team work. Randolph, Neubert and Dole played the game for them. The Sophomores had the advantage of one year's experience, but too much cannot be said in praise of their team work. Everybody from that marvelous little quarter back, to the
