The following resolutions were adopted by the Senior class at a recent meeting:

WHEREAS, Dr. John M. Gregory, out of consideration for his old friend, Dr. George W. Atherton, and his desire to aid his fellowmen in the battle of life, did, at an inconvenience to himself, lay personal feelings aside to instruct us, members of the Senior class of the Pennsylvania State College, not only in the class room, but on Sabbath mornings by his talks in the college chapel, and

WHEREAS, He has shown great interest in our welfare and a willingness at all times to aid and advise us, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the Senior class of the Pennsylvania State College, do extend our hearty thanks to Dr. John M. Gregory for his many kindnesses, good counsel, advice and instruction to us, and be it further
