

Resolved, That we express our regrets at losing his counsel and instruction during the remainder of our college course, and that we express to him our best wishes for his welfare.

F. F. FISHER, JR.,
B. J. BOWEN,
B. W. JESSOP,
Committee for the Class.

Signatures of the class. _____

On Thursday morning, April 9th, the day after college opened, it was noised about that the Freshmen had raised their flag pole during the night. They were found to be occupying a place on the campus above the residence of Prof. Gill.

After chapel exercises the Sophs. arrived and endeavored to get possession of the flag, but after three hours' hard fighting they withdrew from the field, leaving the Freshmen to haul down their colors.

Altogether it was a remarkably good-natured scrap and the hatless and shirtless, mud-begrimed contestants presented an amusing appearance to the spectators.

The grouping of the colleges, as they will run at the University of Pennsylvania on April 25th, is as follows:

Yale, Harvard, Pennsylvania and Georgetown.

Columbia, Lehigh and Lafayette.

College of the City of New York, University of New York and Fordham.

Swarthmore, Haverford, Rutgers and Stevens.

Amherst, Union, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Western Pennsylvania University.

State College, Bucknell, Franklin and Marshall, and Dickinson.

Pennsylvania College, Ursinus and St. John's College.

University of Virginia, Johns Hopkins and Vanderbilt University.

The University of Pennsylvania Athletic Association have made arrangements by which the students and alumni of each institution can sit together at the Relay Races held at Franklin Field, April 25th. Their arrangements are as follows:

Those desiring seats will send the money for them to J. L. Fry, clerk of the Athletic Association, Hutson Hall, U. of P., Philadelphia; prior to Monday, April 20th, stating with which college they desire to sit. The most desirable seats will be reserved for these applications. Prices for reserved seats, 75 cents and $1.00. Boxes holding fifteen, prices $15 and $20.