

'94. James E. Quigley is with the Buffalo Forge Company, of Buffalo, N. Y.

'92. Thomas O. Glenn is practicing medicine at Boalsburg.

'90. H. Walton Mitchell is a prominent lawyer in Pittsburg.

'95. H. McA. Beaver, college secretary of the State Y. M. C. A., delivered an address last month to the Y. M. C. A. of this place.

'90. Harvey B. McLean is an employee of Westinghouse Company, of Newark, N. J.

'90. James C. Mock is with Union Switch and Signal Co., of New York City.

'95. C. W. Burkett, resigned his position with the southern branch of the General Electric Company, and is now with the Bell Telephone Company at Atlanta.

'88. William P. Jones is a prominent physician of Helena, Ohio.

'80. J. Fremont Hickman is Agriculturist for the Ohio Ag. Ex. Station at Wooster, Ohio.

'94. John B. White has accepted a lucrative position with the Eastchester Elec. Co., at Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

'95. Ralph L. McDonald visited his home here recently. He is still with the White-Crosby Electric Construction Company and is now located at Baltimore, Md.

---

“Will you be mine?” the young man asked,
With heart so light and free.
The maiden slowly shook her head,
’Twas her privilege, you see.

The young man rose from where he knelt,
His chest heaved forth a sigh;
Then all at once his face grew bright,
And, “May I be yours?” he cried.

A smile came o’er the maiden’s face,
A smile that said not nay.
“You may be mine,” she then replied;
And he was hers from that day.