

o'clock. Hours during the day are posted. Librarians, Carpenter and Dawson.

The Friday Club met at the house of Prof. Pattee on the evening of January 15th. A novel entertainment was enjoyed. Music was furnished by the Mandolin Club.

The editors of the '98 La Vie report that the annual is progressing finely.

Many of the students enjoyed skating on Thompson's pond, below the college, the first part of the term.

A committee consisting of Curtin, Andrews and Conrad, has been appointed to take the matter of Trophy Room in charge,

The Senior Class has decided to graduate without the cap and gown. It is to be hoped that this decision will not influence succeeding classes.

The Electrical department recently received a very fine electro-dynamometer, built by Elmer Williams, of Philadelphia, upon specifications furnished by the electrical corps of the college.

Rev. Lawrence M. Colfelt, D. D., has recently been appointed to the chair of Ethics. He is at present teaching Constitutional Law in the college. The students will be pleased to know that Dr. Colfelt is to preach at Sunday chapels during the whole of the college year.

At the last athletic meeting of last session the following elections were made: Manager of Base Ball Team, H. S. Davis; Manager General Athletics, H. G. Huber; Marshal for General Athletics and Base Ball, A. F. Blair; Base Ball Committee, L. F. Hayes, J. M. Curtin, L. T. Bechtel; General Athletic Committee, F. A. Kaiser, D. P. Conrad, C. A. Mechesney.

The track team has begun work in the Armory under the captainship of E. V. Rawu.

Dr. Newton has issued a call for all athletes to come to his office for physical examination. This examination is compulsory.

At a meeting of the Athletic Association, held in the College Chapel, January 18th, J. S. Albert was elected Manager of College Foot Ball Team for '97. Foot Ball Committee: J. E. Clapper, A. N. Diehl, W. A. Murray. Marshal: G. S. Halderman.

There will be four class games in basket ball this term, and from these teams will be picked the college team. Games are to