

A curse on this miserly system
 Of limitless burdensome fees,
 For acids and stinks
 And ever clogged sinks.
 Must we pay such extortions as these?

O! heavens that bend above us,
 List to the "Lab's" retort.
 And moneyed trustees,
 Just do if you please,
 Give us all relief of some sort.

For it's twenty-five dollars for "Lab."
 And a "fiver" or "tenner" to boot,
 For filters and tubes
 'To buy the young "Rubes,"
 'Tis a "confidence," "bunco"-like loot.

—The Hullabaloo.

HERE AND THERE.

College fraternities have fourteen representative newspapers with a combined circulation of 6,380 copies per issue.

There is a sentiment among the students of the University of Michigan, desiring that the library be opened on Sundays.

Wellesley College has abolished compulsory attendance at the college church and has adopted a system of college preachers.

There are thirty-five members in the University of Chicago Glee and Mandolin Club. It is considered one of the finest organizations in the country.

Carroll, '00, broke the Maryland State record for high jumping on Saturday, with a jump of 5 feet 11¼ inches. The previous record was also held by Carroll.

The Greek Letter Fraternities, at Cornell, own property to the value of nearly one million dollars.

Vice-President Hobart has given $6,000 to Rutgers College at Brunswick, N. J. Mr. Hobart graduated at Rutgers.

The chapel exercises at Cornell are so interesting that seats have to be reserved for the students, the attendance being so large.

A graduate from Cambridge loses his degree and his name is stricken from the Alumni roll if he commits any crime.

The smallest as well as the largest university in the world is in Africa. The smallest has five students and fifteen instructors;