

23, he complied with the request of the Y. M. C. A. to deliver an address for men only in the Bellefonte Court House. In the evening he was prevailed upon to preach a memorial sermon in the Presbyterian church at the same place. There was an immense audience of both the Methodist and Presbyterian congregations. A full account of the service is published in the Keystone Gazette. The following Wednesday he was called upon to make an address at the Alumni dinner in Harrisburg. Saturday he made an address at the Branch cemetery. He filled the College pulpit Sunday and was called to Philadelphia to deliver the funeral sermon of G. Nelson Loomis, Esq., which is published in full in the Oxford Journal. Thursday evening he made a considerable commencement address to the graduates of the Bellefonte High School, then returned to College to preach the baccalaureate sermon and finish his work for the college year.

Mr. Jos. Willard, Professor of Mathematics at State College, and Miss Anna Nunn, of Baltimore, were united in marriage at the home of the bride on Wednesday evening, June 15th.

The Junior Civils spent part of their summer school at Jersey Shore. Their work included hydrographic surveying and hydraulic measurements.

COMMENCEMENT NEWS.

The exercises of the week were opened on Sunday, June 13, with the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. Dr. Colfelt. Long before the ringing of the first chapel bell the halls and lower floors were crowded with visitors. Even after the doors were opened the throng continued, and many, owing to the inadequate seating capacity of our chapel, were left outside. Those who were fortunate to gain a place heard one of the most able and masterful addresses that Dr. Colfelt has delivered during his stay with us, and during his parting sentences to the outgoing class there was scarcely a dry eye in the audience. The chapel was tastefully decorated with palms and cut flowers and the music was excellent.

Monday afternoon the annual inter-class athletic contest was held on Beaver Field. The day was pleasant, but a strong wind was rather retarding. Notwithstanding such drawbacks, five records were broken. The following is a list of the events and winners:

120 yards hurdle, won by Conrad, '97; 2d, Boyd, '00; 3d, Taylor, '98. Time, $17\frac{3}{8}$ sec.
