

ness Manager at once. Unless such notification is received before October 25th, you will be considered a regular subscriber.

William L. Affelder, Bus. Mgr.

P. O. Box, K 17.

The "Free Lance" offers two prizes of Five Dollars each for the two best stories of over 2,000 words submitted by students to the Editor before November 25th.

The Three Senior Editors will judge the relative merits of the productions submitted, the right being reserved to reject any or all of the stories.

In Memoriam.

STATE COLLEGE, PA., Sept. 23, 1897.

WHEREAS, It has pleased a Divine Providence to remove from our midst our friend and classmate, Robert Kerr Stevenson; be it, therefore,

Resolved, That in his death the Class of '98 of the Pennsylvania State College has lost a valued and an honored member whom we all respected and esteemed as a man of sterling qualities.

Resolved, That we extend to his sorrowing family our heartfelt sympathy.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be placed on the minutes of the Class; that a copy be sent to the bereaved family, and that a copy be sent to the FREE LANCE for publication.

J. H. M. ANDREWS,

R. T. STROHM,

F. T. BEERS,

Committee.

STATE COLLEGE, PA., Sept. 22, 1897.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in His Divine Providence to remove from our midst our beloved friend and brother, Hugh McAllister Beaver; be it, therefore,

Resolved, That the Athletic Association of the Pennsylvania State College, acting for the students of the college, desire to express their profound sorrow at his loss. During his association with us his noble and many qualities won for him the respect and esteem of all with whom he associated, while his devotion to his Alma Mater and his affection for her students won for him their love.

Resolved, That we extend to his sorrowing family our heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement.