

E. F. Hill (Philosophy) is teaching school at Hughesville, Pa.

W. E. Houseman, (Mech. Eng.) is a special apprentice in the Penna. R. R. shops, Altoona, Pa.

C. W. Lawrence (Civ. Eng.) is an instructor in the Civil Engineering Dept. of the Penna. State College.

L. L. Leisher (Elec. Eng.) is working for the Bell Telephone Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

F. R. McGee (Mech. Eng.) is employed at Lucy Furnace, Braddock, Pa.

R. M. McKinley (Mech. Eng.) is with the Union Switch and Signal Co., Pittsburg.

J. W. Miller, Jr. (Mathematics), is at State College assisting Prof. Osmond in the Physics laboratory, and tutoring.

W. S. Montgomery (Elec. Eng.) is employed with the Edison Illuminating Co., of Chicago.

E. H. Myers (Mathematics) is assistant principal of the Milroy, Pa., High School.

P. F. Sellers (Elec. Eng.) is with the Buffalo General Electric Co.

J. W. Simmers (Mech. Eng.) is back at the College taking a P. G. in Electrical Engineering.

J. Thompson is working with the Baker Forge Co. at Ellwood, Pa.

W. C. Whitten (Mech. Eng.) is with a coal company in Philadelphia.

W. R. Thompson is Mr. Lardner's assistant at White-Crosby Co's. works, Buffalo, N. Y.

F. K. Zentmyer spent the first week of the term at the College.

Ex. '97. A. S. McAllister, after a year's absence, has returned to the College and has entered '98.

FOOT BALL.

STATE, 32; GETTYSBURG, 0.

Students, as a rule, are never very superstitious. Nevertheless, it is an acknowledged fact that whenever Governor Hastings witnesses the game, State wins by a large score. On Saturday, Sept. 25, the season was opened by a game with Gettysburg on Beaver Field. Governor Hastings was present and generously applauded every good play. State won easily by a score of 32 to