PRINCETON, 34—STATE, 0.

State was shut out for the second time this season at Princeton, October 12. The result of the match was not so much of a surprise as the previous game, though some of the most sanguine had hoped that we might score. And to tell the truth, we did not come far from it. During the first twelve minutes of play State completely outplayed Princeton, keeping the ball in the latter's territory and often dangerously near her goal line. Undoubtedly the Blue and White put up the best game of the season. Her interference was superb, and in her dashes at the line she seldom failed to gain. Her men broke through the line and frequently tackled the Princeton backs before they were rightly started. On the other hand, Princeton could not gain through our line. Time and again she was held for four downs. But unfortunately our stand was of short duration. After the ball had once crossed our goal line matters underwent a sudden and complete change. Princeton took the much-needed brace and State weakened, and then the points began to roll up. For State, Curtin, Scholl and Elssler played the best game, though extreme credit is due to every man. The line-up follows:

PRINCETON.	POSITIONS.	STATE.
Cochran	right end	Mechesney
Hillebrand (Geer)	tackle	Cartwright
Edwards	guard	Elssler
Booth	center	Murray
Holt	tackle	Scholl
