

thirty yards around the left end, taking the ball out of danger. No gain was made in two scrimmages, and Atherton tried to punt, but fumbled. Then he kicked it on the ground, and gained fifteen yards, but the ball was taken back for off-side play, and given to Bucknell. Cober made five yards and Catterall sent the oval whirling to State's 10-yard line. State made ten yards through the line, and Curtin got twenty on a fake kick, Garner making a nice tackle. Cure got five yards, Ruble failed to gain, and Atherton punted twenty yards. Catterall punted back twenty yards, and Bucknell got the ball on downs. Hoffman was given the ball, and the interference forming nicely for once, he gained fifteen yards. Nattress and Cober failed to gain, and Catterall tried for a goal from the field with a drop kick from the 25-yard line, but failed, being too slow in getting the kick off; Atherton fumbled, and Bucknell got the ball on State's 10-yard line for the second time in this half, but time was called before they could shove it over.

In the first half Bucknell seemed to have the advantage, in spite of the score of 4 points against her. The play had been in State's territory three-quarters of the time. In the second half, State seemed to collect herself, and the interference formed quickly and compactly. The first five minutes' played proved that State had won the day.

Cober kicked off to State's 15-yard line, and Atherton returned to five yards past the centre. Curtin made twenty yards around left end, Cure tried the right end for ten, and Curtin got ten more around the left, taking the ball to Bucknell's 10-yard line, from where it was shoved over by short dashes through the line. Randolph scored the touchdown, and Mechesney kicked the goal. Score:

State College . . . . .	10
Bucknell . . . . .	0

Cober kicked off, but the ball failed to go ten yards, and he again kicked off. This time it went too far and was touched back, and kicked off by Atherton from the 25-yard line, Cober rushing it back to the centre. Hoffman made three yards, and a fake kick brought three more. Nattress was thrown for a loss of ten yards by Ruble, and Hoffman also lost ten. Bucknell held the ball, having carried it back twenty yards. Catterall tried to kick, but Scholl broke through, blocked the punt, and ran thirty yards for a touchdown, Mechesney kicking the goal. Score:
