

Dr. S. B. Newton, Director of Physical Training, spent the vacation abroad.

Prof. Fehr has moved to his new home on the College Campus. The house was recently completed and is a pretty addition to the ones already erected there.

In accordance with the custom in vogue here, the Freshmen class presented the student body with cider on the night of September 26th.

On Saturday, Sept. 17th, a large train-load of people from Tyrone, who were picnicing at Hunter's Park, made a brief visit to the College.

T. R. Beyer, Assistant Prof. of Civil Engineering, has been seriously ill with typhoid for some time. His condition is somewhat improved at present and he expects to return to the College by the first of November.

On account of an unexpected but urgent call, General Beaver was unable to deliver the address in Chapel, Sunday, Sept. 25th, as was expected. His son, Gilbert Beaver, of the class of '90, appeared in his stead and his earnest and well delivered discourse appealed to all.

The quarters of the Press Club have been removed to room number 376, Main Building, where the usual number of periodicals and newspapers, purchased for the benefit of its members, will be kept.

The Borough has been making extensive improvements in order to afford better surface drainage on the side of College Avenue adjoining the College Campus.

The Free Lance has made arrangements with the Wilczek Concert Co., to furnish one of the best concerts, if not the best ever heard in the College Chapel, on Saturday, Nov. 26th.

The College Y. M. C. A., as is its usual custom, sent five delegates to the Students' Conference at Northfield, held during the first part of July. They were C. B. Snyder, '99, W. H. Thomson, '99, H. E. Wagner, '99, L. E. Young, '00, and A. K. Risser, '01.

There has been delay in arranging a schedule of military exercises for the session, owing to uncertainty about the plans of the War Department in respect to the detailing of an officer of the Regular Army to act as Commandant. Regular drill, however, will begin shortly, even if only under a temporary organization.