

'95. J. F. Rogers is studying law at Pittsburg.

'96. B. F. Williams has resigned his position as Manager of the El Paso and Albuquerque R. R. in order to take charge of the coal interests of his father at Wilkesbarre.

'96. R. F. Kelker is employed in the draughting department of the works of the Penn'a Steel Co., at Steelton, Pa.

'97. J. W. Simmers is draughting for the P. W. & B. R. R. Co. at Wilmington, Del.

'97. W. C. B. Alexander is chief engineer of the Morrisdale Coal Co., of Morrisdale Mines, Clearfield Co., Pa.

'97. E. H. Myers is taking a post graduate course here in Physics and Mathematics.

'97. J. E. McCullough is employed as a chemist in a private laboratory at Moline, Ill.

Ex-'97. Miss Edna McClelland spent a portion of last month with Miss Elizabeth Stuart of State College.

Ex-'99. H. H. Mallory is attending Brown University where he holds a fellowship.

Ex-'99. J. W. Offutt is working in a draughting room at Youngstown, Ohio.

Ex-'00. S. L. Ruslander is studying law at the Columbia University Law School.

Among the Alumni who have visited the College since its opening were Mitchell, '90, Meek, '90, Yocum, '91, Fleck, '95, Price, '96, Teas, '97, Harris, '97, Dunsmore, '97, Strohm, '98, Cochran, '98, and Sprecher, '98.

THE CLASS OF '98.

J. S. Albert (Mech.) is a special apprentice in the erecting shop of the Southwark Foundry and Machine Co. of Philadelphia.

J. H. M. Andrews (Phil.) is a draughtsman in the Frog, Switch, and Signal Dept. of the Penn'a Steel Co., Steelton, Pa.

L. L. Ansart (Math.) is taking post graduate work in Mathematics and Physics at State.

Thos. Beaver (Gen. Sci.) is reading Blackstone.

L. T. Bechtel (Mech.). We have been unable to learn anything about Bechtel. [Ed.]

F. T. Beers (Chem.) holds the position of assistant in the laboratories of The Pa. State College.

A. F. Blair (Mech.) is employed by the Union Foundry and