

the end of the game for Hayes and Curtin, were good for a number of large gains. With the exception of his failure to hold the ball on some of Mathewson's punts, Cure played a fine game, both in punting and in making good gains through and over the centre.

Bucknell's only strength lay in Mathewson's fine punting. She was able to gain but little either through State's line or around the ends. Her only considerable gain was made by Stanton around the right end for 35 yards on a trick play similar to the one which cost State a touchdown in her game with Susquehanna.

The details of the game were as follows:—

First half.—State won the toss and chose the south goal in order to take advantage of a slight wind blowing towards the north. Ross caught Mathewson's kick on the 35 yard line and advanced 15 yards, State gained 15 yards on several plays and then fumbled, Reimer obtaining the ball.

Bucknell lost the ball on a fumble after gaining 5 yards. Curtin went through the left end for 15 yards, Cure through right tackle for 2, Hayes around right end for 40 yards to the 15 yard line, State advanced 7 yards and Cure punted but Bucknell blocked the kick and obtained the ball. Mathewson punted 30 yards, Bucknell got the ball on State's fumble, Mathewson punted to State's 25 yard line and State again failed to secure the ball, Cober advanced 5 yards through centre, and Mathewson missed a field goal. Cure and Mathewson exchanged punts, Cure obtained the ball on State's 10 yard line and advanced 15 yards, Hayes went around the right end for 25 yards and Curtin through the left end for 15. Bucknell was given the ball for off-side playing and Mathewson punted to Cure after Garner had lost 3 yards. Cure punted to Garner who advanced to State's 40 yard line, Cober gained 3 yards through the centre, and Mathewson kicked out of bounds on a place kick. Cure punted out of bounds, giving Bucknell the ball 25 yards from State's goal. Bucknell was given 10 yards for off-side playing on the part of State, Mathewson again failed to make a goal from the field. After a series of punts by Cure and Mathewson State was given 10 yards on an off-side play by Bucknell, Heckel lost 3 yards, Cure punted to Garner, and Mathewson punted to Cure. From the centre of the field, Scholl, assisted by the excellent interfer-
