

COLLEGE NOTES.

DO NOT forget while at home during vacation to procure a costume for the annual masquerade ball which will be held under the auspices of the Base Ball team in the Armory next February. It is the intention of the base ball committee to debar all tramps and negro rowdies hoping thereby to make this event far outshine any held in the past.

The reception given by Miss McKee, '99, to the Senior class on the evening of Noeember 18, was one that will long be remembered by the persons present. The decorations consisting of the class and college colors, class pennants and canes, were very prettily arranged. Miss McKee was assisted in receiving her guest by her mother, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Carpenter, Miss Deane and Miss Olds. In the early part of the evening, a mock "Faculty Meeting" was presented by Messrs. Barclay, McCallum, H. P. Wood, Affelder, Finley, M. R. Stevenson, Haehnlen, Sherer, Neubert, and Reed.

On Friday evening, November 25, the Senior class held its Thanksgiving Assembly in the Armory. Although the attendance was not as large as was expected the dance was a decided success. Mrs. G. W. Atherton, Mrs. G. G. Pond, Mrs. W. A. Buckhout, Miss Harriet A. McElwain, Mrs. Gabriel Hiester, Mrs. M. D. Burnet, Mrs. H. R. Curtiss, Miss Alice Wilson, Mrs. J. Y. Dale, Mrs. H. P. Armsby, Mrs. J. P. Jackson, Mrs. J. L. Lane, Mrs. John M. Dale, Mrs. L. E. Reber, Mrs. Geo. L. Potter, Mrs. H. C. Quigley, Mrs. G. C. Watson, Mrs. T. H. Taliaferro, Mrs. J. H. Leete and Mrs. R. M. Foster served as patronesses.

Dr. Atherton and Dr. Benedict addressed the Franklin County Teachers' Institute held at Chambersburg several weeks ago.

The drill of the new cadets did not begin until the last week in November. After a few preliminary drills, the College Battalion was formed with following officers:
