

About two dozen pairs of dumb bells and the same number of Indian-clubs have recently been added to the gymnasium, while some of the other apparatus has been repaired.

The men whom Dickinson intends to put into the field to contest with State at Carlisle in the debate are: O. R. Rice, C. E. Burchenal, F. E. Craver, and E. F. Hann as alternate. They express great hopes of once more coming off victorious.

There has lately been organized among the students a Book Club of about twenty-five members, who have purchased some twenty-five of the latest books by the most popular authors of the day.

Prof. I. Thorton Osmond has revised his Manual of Vibratory Motion.

Capt. Johnston and Coach Burns made a test of State College water during their Easter vacation.

The following officers of the Y. M. C. A. have been elected for the ensuing year: Pres., F. G. Connell; Vice Pres., L. E. Young; Rec. Sec., Thomas Crumley; Cor. Sec., W. R. Miles; Treas., C. F. Schoop.

The Conference of the College Y. M. C. A. Presidents of this State will be held here from April 27 to 30.

Byron W. King, of Pittsburg, will give an entertainment in the chapel, Friday, April 28, for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A.

Seniors Gorr and Griffin were working upon their thesis at the Winber Mine of the Berwind White Coal Mining Company. The subject of their thesis is, "Uses and Application of Electricity in Mining."

Three Juniors and several Sophomores took advantage of the course offered in Foundry Work during vacation and removed part of their summer school work.

C. B. Snyder, '99, is working on an air accumulator and intensifier, using water from the college mains. It will be used in connection with the air compressor received during the Winter Term.