

lege was passed at last evening's session appropriating $67,000 for The Penn'a State College.

Drill has been suspended for the present, in consequence of which all students are very sorry.

E. E. Hewitt has been appointed monitor of the Sub-Freshman Class in place of R. E. Streeter, who has returned home.

Snyder, '99, has been appointed floor-marshal in place of Dawson.

H. R. Nelson, '01, has recovered from a badly sprained ankle.

G. C. Shaad, '00, spent a few days at his home during the last of April.

C. H. Bassler, '01, has been elected base ball manager for the season of 1900.

At a meeting of the Athletic Association held May 8, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—Pres., A. C. Pollock, '00; Vice Pres., C. Q. Weekes, '00; Sec., G. K. Warn, '00, and Treas., F. J. Pond, '92.

A. H. Miller, '02, who has been seriously ill from an attack of appendicitis, is slowly improving. It was necessary to summon his parents from their home at Philadelphia.

Prof. M. G. Benedict has gone to Montrose High School as instructor in the Summer Normal, which commenced May 15th.

H. H. Stoek, formerly Assistant Professor of Mining Engineering and Metallurgy at this Institution, was a visitor at the College a few days the first of this month.

Prof. Hayward expects to spend his summer vacation taking special work at Harvard Summer School.

W. B. P. Lockwood, '99, has secured a position with the Walker-Gordon Laboratory Company of Boston. He will enter upon his new duties about July 1st.

F. F. Pepper, assistant in Dairying, has resigned his position to accept one with the Empire Cheese Company of New York.

The Agricultural Department is preparing and sending out to teachers of the Public Schools a course in Nature Study. This embraces Plant Growth, Insect Development, and Animal Development.

A framework about thirty-five feet high has been erected, by