

Col. Hiram Young then responded with a toast to the College, and was followed by a few remarks from Mr. A. A. Patterson, president of the Alumni Association. H. P. Wood, '99, then responded for his class by describing the troubles of the past four years, and expressing their hopes for the future. The concluding speech was by Dr. Atherton who outlined the past, present, and future work of the college.

THE THESPIANS.

On Tuesday evening the Thespians gave a presentation of "The School for Scandal" in the college chapel. The play was given before a large audience and was well received, although many in the audience had attended when it was given in the Winter term. There was a noticeable improvement in some of the players since then, while a few had deteriorated. The cast is made up of the following:

Sir Peter Teazle,	J. C. Reed, '99.
Sir Oliver Surface,	D. E. Wentzel, '00.
Sir Benjamin Backbite,	J. N. Sherer, '99.
Joseph Surface,	A. N. Diehl, '98.
Charles Surface,	John Newbert, '99.
Crabtree,	A. W. Oakwood, '00.
Rowley,	G. E. Guy, '00.
Careless,	J. L. Hæhnlen, '99.
Moses,	John Agnew, '00.
Snake,	H. C. Glenwright, '00.
Trip (Servant),	G. K. Warn, '00.
Lady Teazle,	G. J. Yundt, '99.
Lady Sneerwell,	N. W. McCallum, '99.
Mrs. Candor,	John Hunsicker, '01.
Maria,	N. W. Buckhout, '99.

J. H. Leete, }
F. L. Pattee, } Directors.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

The final event of the Commencement program began at 10 o'clock, Wednesday morning, when the Class of '99, assembled in the college chapel for the last time, where the following program was rendered:

- MUSIC, Overture, "Morning, Noon and Night in Vienna" . . Suppe.
- INVOCATION: The Rev. Lawrence M. Colfelt, D. D.
- ORATION, The Land of the Future:
FRANCIS MARION CARPENTER.
- ORATION, Alexander Hamilton:
GEORGE JACOB YUNDT.