

COURSE IN ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING.

William Percival Beyerle, Bernville, John Clarence Reed, Mount Joy,
 Dan E. Carpenter, State College, James Lower Stewart, Arch Spring,
 *William Barker Dawson, Tarentum, Victor Milton Weaver, State College,
 Hosea Grant Gorr, Factoryville, Harry Peterman Wood, Muncy,
 Wilson Taylor Griffin, North East, George Jacob Yundt, Weissport, *Judd Lupfer Minick, Ridgway.

COURSE IN MECHANICAL ENGINEERING.

Louis Allen Harding, Factoryville, Clarence Stone, Marshall's Creek,
 Charles Benjamin Snyder, Lock Haven.

COURSE IN MINING ENGINEERING

William Lewis Affelder, Allegheny, Lalon Farwell Hayes, Freeport, Ill., Walter Engle Brandt, Mount Joy, Robert Vincent Rex, Mauch Chunk,
 Walter Hardie Finley, Horr, Mont., James Norman Sherer, Steelton,

The following additional degrees were then conferred: That of Electrical Engineer to William F. White of Denver, Col.; Master of Science to Ralph L. Watts, of Knoxville, Tenn., and that of Mechanical Engineer, to Charles S. Gingrich, of Erie, Pa., and Arthur G. McKee of Youngstown, Ohio.

Following these came the awarding of prizes: The McAllister prize to A. H. H. Miller, '02; Oratorical prizes to L. E. Young and A. W. Oakwood. Prize for best Inter-Class Debating team to Thompon, Wood, and Yundt all of '99. Three senior cadets ranking highest in military duty to Weaver, D. E. Carpenter, and Way; Agriculture prize to F. M. Carpenter, '99; and Biological prize to W. F. Ross, '01.

The Honor men of the class of '99 are in alphabetical order:—

FIRST HONORS:

William Lewis Affelder,
 Dan Ellsworth Carpenter,
 Newton Wells McCallum,
 Victor Milton Weaver,
 Harry Peterman Wood,
 George Jacob Yundt.

SECOND HONORS:

Robert Charles Bell,
 Francis Marion Carpenter,
 Wilson Taylor Griffin,
 Mary G. McKee,
 Charles Benjamin Snyder,
 Malcolm Reid Stevenson.

BALL GAME.

Wednesday afternoon State met the Cuban Giants on Beaver Field, and defeated them by the score of 12 to 3. (See athletic notes for full account).

JUNIOR ASSEMBLY.

On Wednesday evening the Juniors gave their annual ball in honor of the Seniors. The armory was neatly decorated with * Degree to be conferred on the completion of special work.