

YE ALUMNI.

---

'71. John Hamilton, Sec'y of Agriculture of Pennsylvania, attended the Commencement.

'80. Frank Wooley was recently married at his home in Delaware.

'91. Prof. J. M. Fields, formerly assistant Chemist at the Experimental Station here, will be appointed Director of the Oklahoma Experiment Station at Stillwater, Oklahoma, on July 1, '99.

'92. E. W. Bush, Assistant Engineer of the Connecticut River Bridge Commissioners, Hartford City, has recently been elected an associate member of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

'93. Edward P. Butts, C. E., an associate member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, of the firm of Butts and Crosby, Architects and Engineers, Hartford City, has been elected a member of the French Society of Civil Engineers.

'95. G. D. Green, who graduates at the U. P. Medical School this year, has been appointed to service in the Mercy Hospital of Pittsburg.

'95. H. H. Geary is now General Agent for the Fostoria Incandescent Light Co., of Fostoria, Ohio.

'95. S. T. Herr has resigned his position with the Fort Pitt Bridge Works of Canonsburg, Pa., and accepted a position with the Sheffler Bridge Co., of Pittsburg. Address: Aspinwall, Pa.

'97. J. W. Miller, Jr., has been reappointed to a University fellowship in Columbia University.

'98. A. T. Blair has resigned his position with the Union Foundry & Machine Co., of Pittsburg, and accepted a position with the Atlas Cement Co., of Allentown, Pa. He called at the College on his way to his new position.

'98. R. T. Strohm has obtained the position of Chief Draughtsman with the Union Foundry & Machine Co., which was made vacant by the resignation of Blair.

'98. C. F. Sponsler, who has been an Instructor in Practical Mechanics here for the past year, has accepted a position with the Michigan Central Railroad, which is to be equipped with a system of pneumatic and electrical signals.