ANNAPOLIS VS. STATE.

6-0.

FOLLOWING the Princeton defeat of Wednesday came that of Annapolis on Saturday. Here our already crippled team was forced to play with an injured captain, as Randolph had received a bad injury to his knee on Wednesday. The small score may serve to give some idea of the hardness of the struggle, but hard as it was, it was one of the cleanest games ever played and no accidents of any serious nature occurred.

The Cadets opened the game, defending the south goal with the sun in their favor and a strong wind against them. The game abounded in punting, the exchanges of kicks giving neither side any decided advantage. At the end of the first half the score was 0-0. In the second half the Cadets, by punting, forced the ball well into our territory, where they gained possession of it on a short return kick. They then pushed their way down the field for a touchdown, by means of short line plunges and close formations. Wortman kicked the goal and game ended with score 6-0 in favor of the Cadets. The line-up was as follows:

NAVAL CADETS	POSITIONS.	STATE
Long	left end	Harris
Wortman	left tackle	Ruble
Halligan	left guard	Randolph
Adams	centre	Cummings
Delknap	right guard	Schol
Nichols	right tackle	T. H. Miller
Rogers	right end	Wood
Osterhaus	quarter-back	Johnson
Horning	left half-back	D. K. Miller
Land (Freyer)	right half-back	Burns
Wade	full-back	Maxwell

Referee—DeSaulles, of Yale. Umpire—Stone, of Annapolis. Touchdown—Halligan. Goal, Wortman. Score—Annapolis, 6; State, 0.
