

cupied by Capt. Pierson.

Prof. Ihlseng spent his Thanksgiving vacation in North Carolina where he was engaged in examining a recent discovery of talc.

Dr. Frear and Messrs Fries and Hess have departed on their lecturing tour to different parts of the State.

The popularity of Prof. Pattee's school edition of Macbeth has led his publishers to request of him a similar edition of the Merchant of Venice.

The American Journal of Psychology recently published the review by Professor Runkle of a work of psychological interest: Studien uber Hysterie-Breuer und Freud.

Prof. Gill received from Boston, recently, a part of the library of his father-in-law, the late Rev. Joseph Whitman. The library comprises between two and three hundred volumes.

Mr. T. C. Hopkins, late Asst. Professor of Geology at State College, is at present engaged in pursuing a course of graduate studies at Chicago University.

Catalogues, price lists and blue prints of great value have been donated to the Senior Mining Engineering students by over thirty-one different manufacturers of mining machinery and supplies.

A number of newly bound magazines have been placed in the cases in the Engineering library.

At a recent meeting of the Scientific Association, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—President, Prof. J. P. Jackson; Vice Presidents, Prof. F. E. Foss, Prof. F. L. Pattee, and Prof. M. C. Ihlseng; Secretary and Treasurer, Asst. Prof. W. H. Towle.

ATHLETICS.

If it can be satisfactorily arranged, Manager Bassler will offer a series of Lectures and Concerts to be given in the College Chapel. Tickets for the course will cost $1.00, reserved seats $1.50. The proceeds for the benefit of the Basket Ball Association. It is to be hoped that all will give this matter their attention and help make it a success.

Basket Ball practice has been started and all who wish to try for the team will please report at the Armory as requested by the Captain.