

series of articles on representative types of American Literature. The first of the series, an article on Longfellow's "Evangeline," appeared in the January number.

The new calorimeter which is under construction at the Experiment Station for special government work, will have its temperature regulated by means of electrical heaters. A small generator and gas engine for furnishing the necessary power has already been installed.

"The Feast of the Sports" will be held in the Armory, Jan. 26, for the benefit of the Base Ball Team. Supper will be furnished, after which dancing will be in order. The State College Band and the Mandolin Club will furnish the music. An enjoyable time is assured, so all come and help the Ball Team.

The State College Literary Club held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Prof. E. W. Runkle, Monday evening, Jan. 8th., a paper entitled "Confession and the Confessional" was read by Dr. Runkle.

The following new students have entered College since the opening of the term:--

FRESHMEN

C. H. Splitstone.....Civil.....Linsville, Pa.
C. W. Rogers.....Mining.....Warren, Pa.

SUB-FRESHMEN

C. G. Cunningham.....Swissvale, Pa.
Ernest Davidson.....Wampum, Pa.
E. Hanscom.....State College, Pa.
L. H. Knupp.....Warren, Pa.
F. A. Riegel.....Lehighton, Pa.
F. B. Russell.....Lewiston, Pa.

SPECIAL AGRICULTURE

J. C. McWilliams.....Mooresburg, Pa.
F. G. Satterthwaite.....Fallsington, Pa.
M. C. Stevenson.....Elkdale, Pa.