

YE ALUMNI.

'90.

J. C. Mock is one of the constructing engineers of the Union Switch and Signal Company. Mr. Mock's connection with that company has marked him as a man of unusual ability.

'94.

H. P. Dowler is located at Glen Campbell, Pa., as Superintendent of some coal mines in that region.

'95.

Robert Mathias is the Southern New England representative for the Fostoria Incandescent Lamp Company. Permanent address, Chalfont, Pa.

'96.

Howard Jones, who a few months ago accepted a position with the Union Switch and Signal Company, has recently been given a quite satisfactory position with the Carnegie Company, at Homestead, Pa., in the armor-plate department.

J. W. Jessop is Electrical Engineer in charge of the electric plant operating the Axle Works of the Carnegie Steel Company, Homestead, Pa.

'98.

J. E. Clapper was transferred from the Keystone Bridge Company, of the Carnegie Company, to their draughting department at the Duquesne plant.

'99.

W. H. Finley is Assistant Engineer of the New Soddy Coal Company, Soddy, Tenn.

L. F. Hayes is located at Cripple Creek, Col.

J. L. Stewart is with the Southern Bell Telephone and