

pleasant remembrance.

"The Feast of Sports," held in the Armory January 26, was a most enjoyable occasion. Supper was served from half past five till eight o'clock. A "crazy quadrille," and a Cake Walk were features of the evening. Then followed a "general" dance. It was as much a financial success as a social one, nearly $200 being cleared.

The February section of the Friday Club was entertained at the "Cottage" on Friday evening, Feb. 16th.

The Literary Club was entertained at Prof. Pattee's on Monday evening, Feb. 5th. Prof. Pattee read an interesting paper on "Philip Freman, the Father of American Poetry."

"Some People That I Have Met," the lecture delivered on Friday evening by Prof. A. W. Hawks, of Baltimore, called forth rounds of applause and peals of laughter. His lecture was pleasing and very amusing and should Prof. Hawks visit us again he can be assured of a hearty reception.

Prof. J. P. Jackson entertained the January section of the Friday Club on Jan. 12th. A "Food Fair" was the evening's feature.

OF INTEREST.

The final preliminary debate, for the choosing of State's team to meet Dickinson on March 9th, was held January 31st. Messrs. W. H. Landis, '03; A. B. Gill, '00; F. H. Taylor, '03; upheld the affirmative, while F. Z. Moore, '02; D. B. Tuholski, '03; and G. K. Warn, '00, defended the negative side of the question —Resolved:—That previous to the present war, England was justified in her course of action towards the South African Republic. The negative won. The men selected to represent State are W. H. Landis, F. H. Taylor, and D. B. Tuholski, with F. Z. Moore as alternate. State has chosen the negative side of the question.

Prof. John Hamilton, on Feb. 2nd, lectured on "The Agricultural Resources of Pennsylvania" before the School of Agriculture.
