

LIBRARY NOTES.

The following books relating to South Africa have been recently added to the College library:

Dilke, C. W.—Problems of Greater Britain.

Dilke, C. W.—British empire.

Bryce, James, and others—Briton and Boer.

Latimer, E. W.—Europe in Africa in the 19th century.

Hillegas, H. C.—Oom Pauls people.

Bryce, James—Impressions of South Africa.

Vincent, Frank—Actual Africa.

MacDonald, J. R. L.—Soldiering and surveying in British East Africa.

Schuly and Hammar—New Africa.

Ansorge, W. J.—Under the African Sun,

Hourst, Lieut—French enterprise in Africa.

Noble, F. P.—Redemption of Africa.

Trueblood, B. F.—Federation of the world.

Schreiner Olive—South African question.

Schreiner Olive—Trooper Peter Halket.

King James—Dr. Jameson's raid.

Stanley, H. M. and others—Africa: its partition and its future.

Woodward, W. H.—Short history of the expansion of the British empire.

Keane, A. H.—Africa.

Younghusband—South Africa of today.

Sanderson, Edgar—Africa in the 19th century.

Bigelow, Poultney—White Man's Africa.

Devereaux, Roy—Side lights on South African frontier.

Statham, Reginald—Paul Kruger and his times.

Roberts, Morley—The Colossus.