

Miss M. G. McKee has returned to State College after studying art in Pittsburg since the early part of November.

G. M. Norman has been employed in the chemical department of the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company, of Birmingham, Ala., since December.

Ex-'01

L. M. Reno attended the Dickinson-State Debate. He is at present a student at Bucknell, and will graduate in June, but he still cherishes a warm feeling for State and her associations.

ATHLETICS.

BASKET BALL.

STATE, 10—C. S. N., 9.

After winning all her games at home, State started abroad seeking "new worlds to conquer." Lock Haven Normal was the first proposition, and after a hard contest, on March 1st, she managed to win out. The game was an exceptionally clean one, no fouls having been called. The line up:—

STATE.		NORMAL.
McCleary.....	attack.....	Hall
Pearce.....	attack.....	Hough
Stuart.....	center.....	Feldstein
Elder.....	defense.....	(Capt.) Whittaker
Ruble (Capt.).....	defense.....	McConnell

Goals from field:—State 5, Normal 4. Goal from foul:—Whittaker. Referee:—Griffith, Normal. Umpires:—Willard, Normal; Lundy, State.

STATE, 4—Y. M. C. A., 3.

On Friday evening, March 2nd, State played the Williamsport Y. M. C. A. The play was very fast, and from start to finish it was anybody's game, but Ruble won it for
