

York, Warrior's Mark.

COURSE IN MATHEMATICS.—Franklin Thurston Cole, Upsonville.

COURSE IN PHILOSOPHY.—Geo. K. Warn, Meyersdale.

COURSE IN CIVIL ENGINEERING.—Herbert Clarence Dreher, Tamoqua; *Howard Carman Johnson, West Chester; Chas. Quiggle Weeks, Sunbury.

COURSE IN ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING.—John Agnew, Woodland; Augustus Henry Berger, Reading; Clinton Bolard, Waterford; Harry Centennial Glenright, Minersville; Glenn Ezekiel Guy, Montrose; Roy John D. Hoover, Waynesboro; Wm. A. W. Krebs, Clearfield; Chas. Calvin Mattern, Tyrone; Joseph McKinley, Pittsburg; Decatur S. Miller, New Albany; Davy Schafer Morgan, Winton; Joseph Newton G. Nesbit, Milton; Allen McQuarrie Pearce, State College; David H. Plank, Morgantown; Geo. Carl Shaad, Ralston; Joseph Henry Siegfried, Lehighton; Ermine J. Thompson, Mercer.

COURSE IN MECHANICAL ENGINEERING.—*Frank G. Connell, Sharon; Wayne Thompson Dimm, Dimmsville, Albert Wilson Oakwood, Tyrone; Oliver Christmas Edwards, Pittsburg; *Abram Hiestand Throne, Stony Brook.

COURSE IN MINING ENGINEERING.—Burke Corbet Brady; Brookville; Roland Diller, New Holland; Lewis Emanuel Young, Columbia;

*Degree to be conferred on the completion of work.

The following advanced degrees were also conferred :

MASTER OF SCIENCE.

Warren Pierce Smiley, Buffalo, N. Y.

Subject of Thesis : Some experiments on the determination of iron in refractory ores.

William Holmes Teas, Ridgway, Pa.

Subject of Thesis : Steam pressure and acid as comparative factors in sulphite pulp cooking.