

A. A. Gallaway, '98, is employed in the draughting room of the Pittsburg Coal Company, 232 Fifth Avenue, Pittsburg, Pa.

W. Finley, '99, is engaged in delveloping a large coal tract in western Tennessee.

W. D. Stevenson, '99, has been with H. W. Johns and Company, manufacturers of asbestos packing, Pittsburg.

C. B. Snyder, '99, has resigned his former position with the Union Foundry and Machine Company, of Pittsburg, and is now with the Wagner Electric Company, St. Louis, Mo.

W. L. Affelder, '99, after spending the summer in field and mine surveying in Armstrong and Allegheny counties, Pa., for the Pittsburg Plate Glass company, was on Sept. 1, made superintendent of their Mosgrove Coal Works, Armstrong county, near Kittanning.

Clay Campbell, '00, is to take a vetinary course at the University of Pennsylvania.

H. D. Plank, '00, of the General Electric Company, recently received a promotion.

B. C. Brady, '00, is with the Montana Ore Purchasing Company, Butte, Montana.

H. J. York, '00, is at Columbia University studying medicine.

ATHLETICS.

Foot Ball.

STATE 17—SUSQUEHANNA 0.

State easily defeated Susquehanna University in the opening game of the foot ball season on Beaver field, Sept. 22nd. The visitors got but one square look at the White and Blue's goal. In the second half Spotts, Susquehanna's right tackle, secured the leather on a fumble and made a