

though they meant business. They started at mid-field and rushed the ball down the gridiron, McCracken again carrying it over. Gardiner kicked goal.

In the second half Penn put on the field the best team she had, and for a few minutes played the ball she is capable of playing. But after one touch down for the half the fumbling became as fast and furious as ever, and time was called with the score 5-17.

State's team work was magnificent, while the Red and Blue eleven played as though asleep. The work of Harris was of the highest order. The line up:—

STATE 0—DICKINSON 18.

Dickinson defeated State at Carlisle on Oct. 20 by three touch downs and as many goals. After the game with Penn. State's friends confidently expected a victory, but the Fates decided it otherwise. The contest was an exceptionally clean one from beginning to end.

Dickinson's kick off was fumbled by State on the thirty yard line. From that point the ball was carried over by short gains. McGuffie kicked goal. After the kick off State secured the sphere on downs, and by the work of Scholl advanced it to within fifteen yards of Dickinson's goal but
