Toothpicks 5—Tumblers 12.

BEAVER FIELD, Oct. 27.

The annual game between the Toothpicks and Tumblers resulted in a victory for the Tumblers by 12 to 5. Two halves of an indefinite number of minutes were played. The touchdown for the Toothpicks was made by Robbins after a sensational run of 80 yards. "Hindoo" Craig played a phenomenal game at centre. The officials and substitutes on the side lines played well for both teams. The scoring was all done in the first half.

ALUMNI NOTES.

W. T. Dimm, '00, in a letter of Nov. 24, says: "I came down here July 15 and am in the Scientific Department of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company. I like my work very much and find that my training is good and in the right direction. There are in the Scientific Department two from Boston Tech., two from Cornell, and two from P. S. C., Lewis, '98, and myself, and I think I can say without fear that P. S. C. is holding her own."

H. C. Dreher, '00, is with the Frog, Switch and Signal Department of the Pennsylvania Steel Company in the same
