

ning of vacation is no longer determined by the end of examinations, it would seem just as convenient and much more pleasant to have vacation week include Easter Sunday. The idea is respectfully submitted to the Faculty.

EXCHANGE CLIPPINGS.

Long strips of crimson flushes
 While Night's dark shadows fly,
 A golden glory streaming
 Athwart the eastern sky;
 A calm, expectant stillness,
 A hush of all things, earth,
 A ring of gold,—and clouds unfold;
 The Day has had its birth.

|| || ||

"I have a few more points to touch upon," said the tramp as he awkwardly climbed over a barbed wire fence.

|| || ||

"Why is the dough which our worthy friend, the baker, over on Perrysville avenue, kneads every night before retiring to his peaceful couch after the arduous labors of a busy day so that he might find peace for his soul and arise refreshed the next morning to again take up the diurnal routine of his business in order to earn the wherewithal to keep the wolf from the door of his devoted family like the sun, called by the poet of old 'Aurora, daughter of the morning,' whose first beams spread an effulgence of glory over the surrounding landscape far and near, touching with roseate fingers the summits of the distant mountains and dispelling therefrom the mists which have collected during the nocturnal journey of the sun around the antipodes?"

Now, hearken to the answer.

"Because when it rises, it is light."