

till Easter vacation the Freshmen resolved to make a last effort. In spite of every plot that their class enemies could lay to prevent it, and after one of the hardest fights that has been witnessed here for many a day, forty-three succeeded in escaping the vigilance of the Sophs and in getting to Milton.

THE FLAG SCRAP.

On Wednesday morning April 17, the news went round that the Freshman flag was up in the field near Prof. Gill's residence. From Old Main and all parts of the town the Freshmen came, eager to defend their colors. A little latter the "Sophs" came out to inspect the work and collect their class. The scrap began about 7 o'clock with a vain rush by the "Sophs" and lasted for an hour, at the end of which there was not a whole shirt in the crowd. At eight the Sophomores withdrew, leaving the Freshmen to take down their flag in peace.

—Mr. H. B. Shattuck, B. S., a graduate of Dartmouth, '97, has recently been appointed assistant instructor in the Civil Engineering Department.

—On Wednesday, April, 17th, Rev John W. White, of Milroy, died in the hospital at Philadelphia. The funeral took place at Milroy on Saturday. He was well known at College, having often conducted the chapel exercises, and having had three sons to graduate here. At the time of his death he was pastor of the Free churches of Milroy and Siglersville, where he was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

—On Friday, April 26th, forty-six members of the State Legislature, including part of the Committee on Appropriations visited the College. They came from Bellefonte on a special train, and spent several hours inspecting the College Buildings and equipments. At eleven o'clock an exhibition gymnasium drill was given. This was followed by a