

The Free Lance.

Published monthly during the College Year by the Students of the Pennsylvania State College. Entered at the State College Post Office, May 4, 1887, as second class matter.

J. E. WAGNER, '02, Editor-in-Chief.

Editors.

H. A. BLAIR, '02. L. B. GRINDLAY, '02. C. S. FREEMAN, '03.
D. B. TUHOLSKI, '03. F. H. TAYLOR, '03. E. K. MCDOWELL, '04.
C. N. FENSTERMACHER, '04.

E. R. NORRIS, '03, Business Manager.

THE FREE LANCE is published on or about the fifteenth of each month from October to June, inclusive, by a Board of Editors elected from the three upper classes of The Pennsylvania State College. Its aim is to encourage literary work in College, and to give a faithful representation of College life. Contributions of all kinds are, therefore, earnestly solicited from the Students and Alumni.

The subscription price, for one volume of nine numbers, is $1.00; single copies, 15 cents. The LANCE will be sent regularly to all old subscribers and new students unless ordered to discontinue.

Address all contributions to Editor of FREE LANCE; all business communications to
E. R. NORRIS, Business Manager,
State College, Penn'a.

Editorial.

THE offer made by Bishop Potter, President of the Pennsylvania Society of New York, as announced to the Senior class, should be thoughtfully considered by all members. While the substance of it materially affects only one class, the recognition of our standing among the best colleges of the State should appeal to every man. To stand in a list of five selected colleges with the University of Pennsylvania at its head, in a State like our own, is no small honor. We hope that our own college may be well represented in the competition and thus show not only our appreciation of the offer, but an energy that has always characterized our men.