

The Free Lance.

Published monthly during the College Year by the Students of The Pennsylvania State College. Entered at the State College Post Office, May 4, 1887, as second class matter.

J. E. WAGNER, '02, Editor-in-Chief.

Editors.

H. A. BLAIR, '02. L. B. GRINDLAY, '02. E. S. FREY, '03.
I. C. PALMER, '03. F. H. TAYLOR, '03. E. K. MCDOWELL, '04.
C. N. FENSTERMACHIER, '04.

E. R. NORRIS, '03, Business Manager.

THE FREE LANCE is published on or about the fifteenth of each month from October to June, inclusive, by a Board of Editors elected from the three upper classes of The Pennsylvania State College. Its aim is to encourage literary work in College, and to give a faithful representation of College life. Contributions of all kinds are, therefore, earnestly solicited from the Students and Alumni.

The subscription price, for one volume of nine numbers, is $1.00; single copies, 15 cents. The LANCE will be sent regularly to all old subscribers and new students unless ordered to discontinue.

Address all contributions to Editor of FREE LANCE; all business communications to
E. R. NORRIS, Business Manager,
State College, Penn'a.

Editorial.

IN ORDER to follow out our policy as outlined in the first issue, it is necessary that we have the co-operation of all members of the institution if a full report of the news is to be given. Our regular class-work is so pressing that only a limited time can be given to the collecting of news items. If members of the faculty, especially heads of the different departments, officers of the various organizations, members of fraternities, and the student body in general would inform us of any matter that might be of interest to publish, the editors would be very grateful for the favors. It is true that the members of the Staff have accepted the responsibility of