

At the game the State aggregation of rooters occupied the bleachers with their band. The few Lehigh adherents who were there were scattered. Game was called at 2:44.

Hewitt won the toss and kicked off to State. Several attempts at Lehigh's line showed that it was weak. The ball was soon on Lehigh's twenty yard line. Here State was penalized and lost the ball. Twice Lehigh hurled herself against State's line but it held like a stone wall and Fuller kicked to Whitworth at the centre of the field. Then State again began to march toward the goal and at 2:58 Scholl went over for the first touchdown. Smith failed at goal. State 5—Lehigh 0.

Fuller kicked off for Lehigh to Cummings, who advanced it to the center of the field. Cummings then made a good gain around Lehigh's left end, but State was again penalized, Lehigh getting the ball. Lehigh could not gain, and the ball went to State. The game here turned into a procession, State gaining at will, while Lehigh could not gain. The result was that at 3:11 Arbutnot made his first touchdown of the season for State. Scholl failed at goal. State 10—Lehigh 0.

Fuller kicked off to State. Smith punted on the first play, and Fuller did likewise. The ball became State's on her thirty yard line. On the next play, behind magnificent interference and by skillful dodging, Cummings skirted Lehigh's left end for eighty yards and a touchdown. Scholl kicked the goal. State 16—Lehigh 0.

After the kick-off State tried a delayed pass for a fake punt. It worked beautifully and Smith gained thirty yards. Failing to gain on the next two plays Smith kicked to Fuller who returned it to the center of the field. Time was now called for the end of the first half.

The wind favored Lehigh in the second, but counted for little as they had a chance but thrice to kick and State punted not at all. Smith kicked off. Lehigh fumbled and
