

connection with the LANCE. As a business manager he has done much to establish this journal on a firmer financial basis and in this effort he has been very successful. That we are in debt is no fault of his. His resignation was necessitated by the pressure of other work.

For a long time the yell of the College has been felt to be too long, cumbrous and involved to be effective. Another trouble is that the yell is a compilation from the yells of various other colleges, some parts being taken almost verbatim. We suggest the following amended form as obviating some of the difficulties. If this does not meet your approval make something better and hand it in. United action will bring the desired result:

P. S. C. Yo He Hep Rah Ra Boom Rah!
 Sis! Boom! Ah! Cuckoo! Pennsylvania State!
 Yell! Yell! Yell! Again!
 We're from the Land of William Penn!
 State! State!! State!!!
 Whiskiwah—wah! Biskiwah—wah!
 Holymokii!! Kentuckii!!
 Pennsylvania!!! State!!!!

We wish to extend to the Sophomore Class our heartiest thanks for their generous action in giving the proceeds of the inter-class foot ball game to the FREE LANCE. With our financial condition such as it is the gift is very opportune and lightens greatly the load of the business managers and of the editors. Again we say to the Class of 1905 we earnestly thank you.

The article in this number taken from the Atlantic, entitled "Pace in Reading," is worth reading and re-reading. One great lack among people is that the vast majority do not know how to read even when they know what to read. As a student
