

body, we do but little reading outside of our regular work. What we have missed we will not know till we get where our opportunities for reading are gone. Even crowded as we are, a little time for outside reading can and should be found regularly.

CALENDAR.

- Nov. 16. Y. M. C. A. "The Holy Spirit Given."
 " 18. Civil Engineering Society.
 " 19. Electrical Engineering Society.
 Natural History Club.
 " 21. Junior banquet at Harrisburg.
 " 22. Foot ball. Dickinson at Carlisle.
 " 23. Y. M. C. A. "Our returns for the Lord's benefit."
 " 25. Scientific Association.
 " 26. Thanksgiving recess begins.
- Dec. 1. Thanksgiving recess ends.
 " 2. Civil Engineering Society.
 Y. M. C. A. "How to enter Christ's family."
 " 3. Electrical Engineering Society.
 Natural History Club.
 " 7. Y. M. C. A. "Gaining by losing."
 " 9. Scientific Association.
 " 10. Electrical Engineering Society.
 Natural History Club.

COLLEGE MISCELLANY.

Mr. M. A. Pond, Ph. B., for some time an Assistant in Civil Engineering, has severed his connection with this college, having been appointed Instructor in Civil Engineering at Cornell University.

The Kappa Sigma Fraternity gave an informal dance Wednesday evening, Oct. 22. Guests were present from Bellefonte, Lock Haven, and other nearby towns.