

State during the entire game, and but for the inexcusable slowness and fumbling of State's backfield the score should at least have been tripled.

State hit the line as she always does, with that irresistible force, while its line and ends were practically impregnable against the repeated onslaughts of the Middies' backfield.

In the first half the ball passed back and forth, both teams kicking on third down. Near the end of the half Whitworth got in a dandy run of fifty-five yards, but a blocked place kick spoiled State's hopes of scoring.

In the second half State twice had worked the ball up to the Navy's thirty yard line when they would lose it on a fumble. Two exchanges of punts then followed ending with State in possession of the ball in midfield. Smith then dropped back and punted to Strausberger on the Middies twenty yard, who fumbled it and Yeakley, the lone Freshmen on State's team, fell on the ball with but three minutes to play. State, by the fastest kind of work carried the ball over for a touchdown, Smith getting the honor. Forkum kicked a pretty goal. The tackling of the Middies, Smith's line bucking and Whitworth's run were the features of the game.

LOCK HAVEN, 0; RESERVES, 10.

The game on Beaver Field, November 1, 1902, resulted in another victory for the "Scrub." The Lock Haven Normal boys, though somewhat handicapped by the absence of two of their regular players, put up a good game, and made the Scrub work for all they got. Either team was able to make good gains when it had the ball, but the Scrub always held when the danger line was reached.

Lock Haven kicked off and "Scrub" got the ball at the twenty yard line. From there they took the ball to Lock Haven's thirty yard line where they lost it on a fumble. Lock Haven then carried it back to the "Scrub's" fifteen yard line, where the attempted drop kick was blocked, and it was "Scrub's" ball. By line bucks and end runs the ball was taken to Lock Haven's twenty-five yard line. It was then
